Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Civic and national days of prayer have a long and venerable history in our constitutional republic, dating back to the First Continental Congress in 1775; and,

Whereas, The Declaration of Independence, our first statement as Americans of national purpose and identity, made "the laws of Nature and of Nature's God" the foundation of our United States of America, and asserted that people have inalienable rights that are God-given; and,

Whereas, The Supreme Court has affirmed the right of state legislatures to open their sessions with prayer, and the Supreme Court and the United States Congress themselves begin each day with prayer; and,

Whereas, In 1988, legislation setting aside the first Thursday in May each year as a National Day of Prayer was passed unanimously by both Houses of Congress and signed by President Ronald Reagan; and,

Whereas, The National Day of Prayer is an opportunity for Americans of all faiths to join in united prayer to acknowledge our dependence on God, to give thanks for blessings received, to request healing for wounds endured, and to ask God to guide our leaders and bring wholeness to the United States and her citizens; and,

Whereas, The 66th observance of the National Day of Prayer will be held on Thursday, May 4, 2017, with the theme "For Your Great Name's Sake, Hear Us, Forgive Us, Heal Us" based on Daniel 9:19, "O Lord, listen! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, hear and act! For Your Sake, O my God"; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to give thanks to God by observing a day of prayer in South Dakota when all may acknowledge our blessings and express gratitude for them, while recognizing the need for strengthening religious and moral values in our state and nation:

Now, Therefore, I Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 4, 2017, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-eighth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seventeen.

Dennis Daugaard
